M.A.NGO is proactively engaged in working as part of a wide network of associations, public bodies, experts and activists, from the local level representing the interests and needs rooted in Sardinia (with a particular view to the territory of Northern Sardinia where the association is established) to the European ramifications representing both the potential of coordinated action for providing transnational solutions to shared challenges and of activating European policy-makers with a view to advocating for specific policy responses.

The association works in close coordination with Mine Vaganti NGO, a local association with a long-standing record of bringing European opportunities – from mobility to articulate projects of strategic cooperation in the E+ field – and partnership to the Sardinian territory, thereby creating an appreciable positive impact on the region. The cooperation spans from the joint development of project proposals to the sharing of technical expertise in fields as diverse as project development, research and education through both formal and non-formal means.
